

A is for Activate Faith

Activate Faith: Connect with your pastor about how you and your family could help with worship! There are lots of things to do like be an usher or greeter, serve coffee, hold the basket for Holy Communion, or be a reader.

A is for Activate Faith

Activate Faith: The Psalms are songs and poems written by people to praise God. Can you write a poem about God? What would you say?

A is for Activate Faith

Activate Faith: What is your favorite Bible story? Can you share that story in your own words? Who could you tell it to?

A is for Activate Faith

Activate Faith: Pick out several non-perishable food items from your food pantry. You can bring them to church to share with the food shelf.

A is for Activate Faith

Activate Faith: Name one thing that worries you: being alone, the news, bullying. Practice writing down or drawing your feelings. Pray to God for help.

A is for Activate Faith

Activate Faith: Pick out some books you don't use anymore and donate them to a little library in your neighborhood or at church.

A is for Activate Faith

Activate Faith: Sidewalk chalk is a great way to encourage your neighbors with kind messages and drawings outside your home. What might you say or draw?

A is for Activate Faith

Activate Faith: Host a lemonade stand and donate your earnings to church or food shelf or a different organization.

A is for Activate Faith

Activate Faith: Read an extra Spark Story Bible this week, and ask yourself: What does this story tell me about God?

A is for Activate Faith

Activate Faith: Think about God. Can you make a list of all the things you know about and love about God? Ask others in your family what they think of your list? What else might they add?

A is for Activate Faith

Activate Faith: Do you play an instrument? Can you sing? Learn how to play Jesus Loves Me on your instrument or sing the words. Remember we can praise God with our voices and our instruments.

A is for Activate Faith

Activate Faith: Make cards to donate to church for pastors to give out to homebound members.